PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

The defendant shall participate in a drug or alcohol abuse treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office, which may include substance abuse testing, counseling, residence in a Community Confinement Center, residence in a Comprehensive Sanctions Center, or inpatient treatment in a treatment center or hospital. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse services based on a co-payment fee established by the United States Probation Office. Co-payments shall never exceed the total cost of services provided.

The defendant is not financially able to pay the $15,000 fine which was imposed at the time of sentencing. The special condition requiring that the defendant shall pay any fines that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release shall be held in abeyance until such time as the probation office determines that the defendant is financially able to make payments toward the fine.

CAUSE

On September 10, 1996, Mr. Griggs was sentenced by the Honorable Elsijane T. Roy on charges of robbery of a post office to 120 months Bureau of Prisons. Supervised release began on March 10, 2005, in the Eastern District of Missouri. At the time of sentencing, Mr. Griggs was ordered to pay a fine of $15,000 which was due immediately. Based on Mr. Griggs' own report, he has made no payments toward this fine. Mr. Griggs notes he is financially unable to make any payments toward the fine. He is currently employed by D&D Janitorial in St. Louis, Missouri, earning less than $800 per month and has documented expenses of approximately $900 per month.

Mr. Griggs failed to submit urine specimens on May 4, 10, 18, and 19; June 21; October 10; November 9; December 10 and 28, 2005; and January 24, 2006. In addition, several sweat patches were applied to the Mr. Griggs' body and on July 22, 29, and September 26, 2005, Mr. Griggs reported to the drug testing contractor with the patches in hand, and stated the patches fell off. In each instance, the absorbent material inside the patches was missing.

Mr. Griggs' attorney, Assistant Federal Public Defender Jerome Kearney, has been contacted and has no objection to the above noted modification. On February 2, 2006, Mr. Griggs signed a Probation Form 49 agreeing to the modification. Gregg H. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

WAIVER OF HEARING TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF PROBATION/SUPERVISED RELEASE OR EXTEND TERM OF SUPERVISION

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the Court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision.

The defendant shall participate in a drug or alcohol abuse treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office, which may include substance abuse testing, counseling, residence in a Community Corrections Center, residence in a Comprehensive Sanctions Center, or inpatient treatment in a treatment center or hospital. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse services based on a co-payment fee established by the United States Probation Office. Co-payments shall never exceed the total cost of services provided.

At this time, the defendant is not financially able to pay the $15,000.00 fine which was imposed at the time of sentencing. The special condition requiring that the defendant shall pay any fines that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release shall be held in abeyance until such time as the probation office determines that the defendant is financially able to make payments toward the fine.

U.S. Probation Officer
